Darlington Hills

Come for the culture, stay for the friendships.

Nestled in the middle of the Virginia Peninsula near the James River, Darlington Hills boasts a vibrant, thriving community with a population of ~7,000.

WHERE LEGENDS ABOUND

Darlington Hills, originally named Bonnaville, was settled in the 1700s by Charles Bonn and his extended family. According to legend, the Bonn family drowned in the town's creek, leaving only one survivor, whose descendants are rumored to still live in the area.

THE LADYVALE MANOR

Get your camera ready, because you don't want to miss seeing the historic Ladyvale Manor and its ivy-wrapped façade and labyrinth-like hedges.

WHERE SMALL-TOWN LIFE IS IN BLOOM

Escape from the hustle and bustle of the big city and cozy up to our small community.

Amid our stone-paved Town Square, enchanting gas-lit neighborhoods, and miles of wooded pathways alongside 'Bone' Creek, you'll find the number one reason people visit our town time and time again—our residents. Come see for yourself what makes us so special. We hope you'll visit soon!

COFFEE IN TOWN SQUARE

It's hard to resist the fragrant fresh-out-of-the-oven aromas from our town's highly rated coffee shops and bistros. Grab your closest friends, pull up a chair, and dine at one of our many restaurants in Town Square.

SPRING FLOWER FESTIVAL

Join us in April for our Spring Flower Festival! Held annually in the Town Square, boys and men of all ages surprise their sweethearts (and wannabe sweethearts!) with a vase full of flowers.
